Meet us at the stamp mill outside the Museum--- you can't miss it---our biggest exhibit!

Cave Creek was known as cattle country----did you know that once upon a time, tens of thousands of sheep surged through the town streets? Learn about those storied days when old gunfighters strode through Cave Creek and Basque shepherds tended their flocks in the foothills. Author, Volunteer and Cave Creek Museum Board Member Kraig Nelson is also a student of history. His entertaining and thoroughly researched articles on people, sites, and events that have occurred in the Desert Foothills area have been published in many local media outlets and garnered more than one award.

9th/Sunday - Family Fun Workshop – 1.30 – 3.30 pm - A Political Time - Be sure your vote counts during this political year. Learn about items used in political races in the past and create your own poster. Discover why it's important to vote.
