NEW FEATURES, EVENTS, NEWSLETTERS

Dear Les,

Happy New Year! What better way to begin 2017 than to enjoy a stunning sunrise. This issue features a collection magnificent sunrise photographs and some amazing shots of hummingbirds that were taken right here in north Scottsdale, our heartland.

Fun at 16th TPC - Scottsdale

If you've never witnessed the annual fun at the 16th hole at TPC - Scottsdale, then start 2017 off by watching and listening as Tiger Woods makes a hole-in-one on the fabled 16th. Check out "Videos: Watch Phoenix Open 16th Hole Highlights at TPC-Scottsdale" and then read "Golf's Best Party Hole on the PGA Tour."

Concerned about development near your backyard? In this issue, we premier a new category of content, "Announcements, Planning and Zoning." Public notices of requested zoning changes, planning open houses, etc. will be published here. You'll also find the latest edition of the Scottsdale P & Z Link Newsletter, which provides information about requested and active planning and zoning cases.

Scottsdale Scenic Drive Roadside Cleanup

Volunteer and you might find discarded treasure, like this somewhat used TV set. It was discovered by volunteer John Rodwick during our last cleanup. John didn't need another TV and doubted that passing motorists had an interest in watching it, so he placed the TV with the bags of litter he had filled so the trash could be easily picked up by the city.

Friends of the Scenic Drive - GPPA volunteers have supported Scottsdale's Keep Scottsdale Beautiful initiatives for more than 20 years. The Peak has publicized the initiative since 1983 We gain a sense of pride and accomplishment by performing this essential community service. You can too. New volunteers are needed and welcome.
