John Pizzarelli Trio

TOMORROW

A multifaceted jazz guitarist, vocalist, bandleader, and radio personality who is internationally known for classic standards, late-night ballads, and the cool jazz flavor he brings to performances and recordings.

“His performance throughout, as both vocalist and guitarist, is exceptional.”

Tickets: $28.50–$43.50

Friday, May 12 | 9:00 p.m.

Tickets: $28.50–$43.50

Special EFX Acoustic Featuring Chieli Minucci, Nelson Rangell, and Lao Tizer

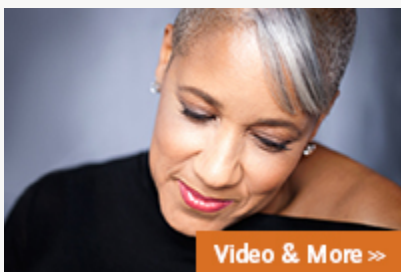

Special EFX helped to pave the road for contemporary jazz during its early years in the 1980s, and the band continues to set the standard.

“Extraordinary range and technical finesse”

—JazzTimes

Tickets: $35.50–$43.50

René Marie

Jazz vocalist René Marie combines an incredible voice with fiery independence and a style that carefully merges together the worlds of jazz, blues, soul, folk, and gospel music with her own theatrical ability.

“Vocalists like the one and only René Marie deserve to be measured for their originality in voice, spirit and song.”

Wednesday, May 17 | 7:00 p.m.
Tickets: $30.50–$38.50

Trace Bundy

Using harmonics, looping, multiple capos, and his unique banter and stage presence, the “acoustic guitar ninja” delivers an unforgettable live concert experience.

“Bundy’s live show is without a doubt an event that needs to be witnessed rather than told about. With such a jaw-dropping performance, Bundy’s live concert is a slap in the face that would leave a palm print on the memory of everyone in the audience.”

—Audiocast Magazine

Friday, May 19 | 7:30 p.m.
Tickets: $33.50–$38.50

Holly Bowling

The music of jam bands such as Phish and the Grateful Dead are reimagined through the eyes and ears of classically trained pianist Holly Bowling.

Saturday, May 20 | 7:30 p.m.
Tickets: $25.50–$30.50

The Sweet Remains

Three gifted and charismatic singer-songwriters create “hushed, smooth folk-pop . . . a smooth take on Crosby, Stills & Nash and James Taylor.”

—Time Out New York
