FCF Donations

Donations to the Foundation help serve the Desert Foothills Community in multiple ways. Your contribution is the fundamental source of funding requisite to operate our programs and support the community as a whole. You help provide quality theater performance and participation opportunities for adults and youth; address community family concerns such as educational challenges, parenting, substance abuse and social pressures; provide a lecture series allowing for insightful learning and discussion on a variety of topics; and support a community center which provides extensive activities to the community at large.
