Delta Rae

TONIGHT

Delta Rae is a rising Americana sextet that has turned heads at the Bonnaroo Music and Arts Festival and been compared to Fleetwood Mac.

“If Fleetwood Mac came up in North Carolina, they might resemble Delta Rae.”

Thursday, September 22 | 7:30 p.m.
Tickets: $33.50–$38.50

Crystal Bowersox

TOMORROW

Bowersox’s emotive folk-rock-country style has been catapulted from the cramped coffeehouses and cavernous subway tunnels of Chicago to millions of homes across America.

Along with her old soul of a voice, her care-free style and “don’t mess with me” attitude set her apart from the other contestants and eventually landed the self-taught songstress performances with the likes of the legendary Joe Cocker, Harry Connick, Jr., and Alanis Morissette.

Friday, September 23 | 6:30 p.m.
Tickets: $33.50–$38.50

Gaelic Storm

Gaelic Storm is known as one of world music’s premier live acts. Their new album, Matching Sweaters, infuses traditional Celtic music with modern influences, updating the genre for a new generation of fans raised on rock, country, and folk.

“The entire group had high energy, consistent interaction with the audience, and exceptional musical performance.”

If given the opportunity, people should jump at the chance to see Gaelic Storm perform live.”

Tickets: $33.50–$38.50

Birth of Swing

Evolution of African-American Dance and Music featuring Chester Whitmore, “Lord of the Swing”

Multitalented bandleader, Chester Whitmore, honors the legendary swing-band era with an entertaining evening that explores the history of African American dance and music.

This concert is part of a series of nationwide events to celebrate the opening on September 24 of the Smithsonian Institution’s new National Museum of African American History and Culture.

Saturday, September 24 | 7:30 p.m.

Tickets: $48.50–$68.50

Elizabeth Cook

Opening Act: Lee Harvey Osmond

Elizabeth Cook is a regular Grand Ole Opry performer who has appeared on the longtime radio broadcast more than 400 times since making her debut in 2000. She has recently overcome tragedy that has included a divorce, six deaths, and a fire at her family’s homestead. Check out her recent article here in the Phoenix New Times.

“Ms. Cook’s music, an eclectic mix of old-school country, honky-tonk, gospel and rockabilly, has been embraced by country’s most time-honored traditionalists as well as singers and songwriters like John Prine and Jason Isbell.”
