Free Admission

Native Trails is a free outdoor festival celebrating the Native American cultures of the Southwest through song and dance. Each event brings together traditional instruments, colorful dances and authentic attire to share the stories of Southwest tribes, including the Hopi, Diné (Navajo), Akimel Au-Authm and San Carlos Apache. Audiences enjoy performances such as the Southwest horse dance, inter-tribal pow-wow dancing, world-championship-level hoop dancing and the audience-participatory round dance. Native Trails also features Native American artisans selling specialty items such as jewelry, baskets, flutes and paintings, as well as light snacks and beverages. Guests are invited to bring blankets, lawn chairs or picnic baskets.

Presented by Fort McDowell Yavapai Nation and Produced by Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts in Collaboration with Scottsdale Convention & Visitors Bureau.

Rob Kapilow: What Makes It Great?

Mozart's G Minor Symphony

Thursday, January 12, 2017, 7:30 p.m.

Musical Instrument Museum, Phoenix

Tickets: $38.50, $48.50, $53.50

What makes great music great? Through his entertaining concert presentations, commentaries on NPR's Performance Today and CD series, Rob Kapilow has brought the joy and wonder of classical music – and unraveled some of its mysteries – to audiences of all ages and backgrounds. Characterized by his unique ability to create an “aha” moment for his audiences and collaborators, whatever their level of musical understanding, Kapilow's work brings music into people's lives: opening new ears to musical experiences and helping people to listen actively rather than just hear.

Combining both performance and engaging commentary from the stage, Kapilow illuminates (and conducts) Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart's Symphony No. 40 in G minor, KV. 550, one of the composer's last and greatest symphonies.

Presented in partnership with the Musical Instrument Museum

SFJAZZ Collective: The Music of Miles Davis

Friday, January 13, 2017

Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts, Virginia G. Piper Theater

Tickets: $39, $49, $69

If you aren't already familiar with the eight artists who comprise the award-winning SFJAZZ Collective, you will be. As soloists, composers and bandleaders, they represent what's happening now in jazz. More than master instrumentalists, each member is possessed of a totally individual creative voice, working collectively to express a unified musical identity. They also demonstrate that jazz has truly become an international language. Hailing from Puerto Rico, New York, Venezuela, Philadelphia, New Zealand and Israel, the Collective's multi-cultural lineup mirrors the explosion of jazz talent around the globe.

This concert will showcase the music of legendary jazz innovator Miles Davis, along with originals from the members of the SFJAZZ Collective.

Storm Large

Saturday, January 14, 2017, 8 p.m.

Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts, Virginia G. Piper Theater

Tickets: $29, $39, $59

Storm Large shot to national prominence in 2006 as a finalist on the CBS show Rock Star: Supernova. She made her debut as guest vocalist with the band Pink Martini in 2011, singing four sold-out concerts with the National Symphony Orchestra at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. Storm continues to perform with the band, touring nationally and internationally, and has performed at Carnegie Hall singing Kurt Weill with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and with Grammy winner k.d. lang, pianist Kirill Gerstein, punk rocker John Doe, singer/songwriter Rufus Wainwright, and Rock and Roll Hall of Famer George Clinton.

Sunday A'Fair

Selected Sundays, January 15 – April 2, 2017, Noon – 4 p.m.

January 15, 22, 29

February 12, 19, 26

March 5, 19, 26

April 2

Outdoors at Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts

Free Admission

Celebrating its 30th season, Sunday A'Fair features free outdoor concerts in Scottsdale Civic Center Park by top Arizona musicians, along with an arts-and-crafts market, fun activities for children and families, and free docent-led tours of the sculptures in the park. Guests are invited to bring blankets, lawn chairs or picnic baskets, and enjoy a relaxing afternoon of great entertainment. Delicious foods from the grill, snacks and cocktails, beer, wine and soft drinks are also available for purchase.

Highlights of Sunday A'Fair 2017 include Peace and Community Day honoring the legacy of Martin Luther King, Jr. on Jan. 15; La Gran Fiesta: A Celebration of Latin and Hispanic Cultures headlined by the L.A.-based band Salt Petal on Feb. 19; and Origination: A Festival of Native Cultures celebrating the arts of France and Native Arizona on March 26.

Virginia G. Piper Concert Series: Louis Lortie, piano

Sunday, January 15, 2017, 7:30 p.m.

Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts, Virginia G. Piper Theater

Tickets: $29, $49, $69

The brilliant and highly esteemed French Canadian pianist Louis Lortie has extended his interpretative voice across a broad range of repertoire rather than choosing to specialize in one particular style. The London Times has identified the artist's "combination of total spontaneity and meditated ripeness that only great pianists have." Lortie has performed with the world's leading conductors and orchestras, and made more than 45 recordings for the Chandos label, covering repertoire from Mozart to Stravinsky. His set of the complete Beethoven sonatas and the complete Liszt "Annees de Pelerinage" was named one of the 10 best recordings of 2012 by The New Yorker.

Program

Chopin: Etudes, Op. 10 and Op. 25

Chopin: Preludes, Op. 28

Concert may feature Keyboard in the Sky™ video-display technology.

Tuesday, April 25, 2017, 7 p.m.

Tuesday, May 9, 2017 @ 7 p.m.

Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts, Virginia G. Piper Theater

General Admission: $17

Mixing Hollywood flair with the element of surprise, Talk Cinema offers sneak previews of new independent and foreign films. Audiences arrive at the theater not knowing in advance what will be screened and are among the first to see a new movie and then engage in a critical discussion led by film scholars and special guests – destined to start conversations before the films ever come out!

Films are personally selected by Talk Cinema founder Harlan Jacobson, the nationally recognized film critic whose signature guarantees quality selections from Cannes, Sundance, Toronto and other internationally ranked film festivals. The selection may be an award-winning drama, an outrageous indie comedy, a provocative documentary or the next breakout hit. (Last season, four of the eight films screened as part of Talk Cinema Scottsdale were nominated for Academy Awards!)
