Scottsdale Community College students hold two-day World Hunger Fair to focus attention on global hunger

Two students who participated in last spring's World Hunger Fair in the SCC Turquoise Room.

(SCOTTSDALE, Ariz., Nov. 22, 2016) -- Scottsdale Community College students will hold a two-day World Hunger Fair Nov. 30 and Dec. 1 to bring attention to global hunger issues and raise money for a national non-profit that prepares and ships food boxes to foreign countries in need of food.

The event is presented by SCC students involved in service-learning. Both days run from 9:30 a.m.

to 1 p.m. in the school's Turquoise Room. SCC is located at 9000 E. Chaparral Road in Scottsdale.

The event is free and open to the public. Donations are encouraged and appreciated. Proceeds are donated to Feed My Starving Children, a national non-profit group with a Mesa office.

Students have prepared interactive booths where you can learn about the causes and effects of global hunger in both America and various countries, play free games with modest prizes, listen to international music and sample international food.

The fair started in 2012 as project of English 101 and 091 students taught by Matthew Healy and has grown to include more than 300 students among 10 departments. The World Hunger Fair received the SCC Innovation of the Year award for 2015-16.

For more information, call the SCC Service-learning and Leadership office at (480) 423-6545.
