VETERANS, STUDENTS AND TEACHERS ENJOY FREE TICKETS TO SCOTTSDALE ARTS PERFORMANCES

(SCOTTSDALE, Ariz.) – Veterans, students and teachers are enjoying free tickets to a variety of events at Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts thanks to the generosity of Tiffany & Bosco, P.A. and Great American Title Agency, Inc.

During its most recent season, more than 1,800 veterans, students and teachers enjoyed free tickets to Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts events. Tiffany & Bosco, P.A. and Great American Title Agency, Inc. have been the program's official sponsor since 2014.

Both active-duty and retired veterans are eligible to receive free tickets to selected events, which are regularly offered through the Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts box office and its partnership with the Phoenix-based nonprofit Veteran Tickets Foundation (www.VetTix.org). When requesting their tickets directly from the Center, veterans just need to show their military ID or proof of service. Students and full-time teachers from any grade level – kindergarten to college – may request one free ticket each to selected events through the box office using their current school ID.

"The arts inspire, entertain and educate every one of us," remarked attorney Mark S. Bosco of Tiffany & Bosco, P.A. "We're pleased to support Scottsdale Arts and to help provide shared arts experiences for our veterans, students and teachers."

Bruce Beverly, CEO of Great American Title Agency, Inc. and a member of the Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts Advisory Board, added, "The Center's commitment to excellence and service to the community are values that we share at Great American Title. We welcome the opportunity to support the Center's mission and programs."

"Providing access to the arts is at the heart of our organization's mission," noted Scottsdale Arts President and CEO Neale Perl. "We're grateful to Tiffany & Bosco, P.A. and Great American Title Agency, Inc. for their sponsorship of this wonderful program."

A list of eligible events at Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts is updated throughout the season and includes dance, music, theater and more. Tickets are limited, and additional information is available at www.ScottsdalePerformingArts.org/visit/tickets-discounts/ or through 480-499-TKTS (8587).

SCOTTSDALE ARTS

Through its dynamic partnership with the City of Scottsdale, the nonprofit Scottsdale Arts (formerly known as Scottsdale Cultural Council) creates diverse, inspired arts experiences and educational and outreach opportunities for the community, while fostering the active engagement of individuals, businesses, education and government with the arts. Since its founding in 1987, Scottsdale Arts has grown into a regionally and nationally significant, multi-disciplinary arts organization offering an exceptional variety of programs through three acclaimed operating divisions – Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts, Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art (SMoCA) and Scottsdale Public Art – serving more than 375,000 participants annually.

SCOTTSDALE CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

Since 1975, Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts has provided a stage for a wide range of voices and perspectives, creating shared, inspiring experiences for the community that celebrate artistic excellence and cultural awareness. Today one of the premier performing-arts halls in the western United States, the Center presents a diverse season of dance, music, theater, comedy and film from around the world.
