

As the City of Scottsdale Economic Development Strategic Plan moves from paper to life, Scottsdale is seeking your input to ensure that future efforts remain targeted.

The City of Scottsdale economic development department is launching an online feedback portal to ensure that City economic development strategic plan efforts remain targeted in areas most beneficial to Scottsdale businesses.

Business representatives can complete the online feedback form ONLINE AT THIS LOCATION (takes about 15 minutes or less).

Respondents are not required to provide personal information to participate, and thus may remain anonymous. Responses provided via this portal are administered by TheMindSuite, a Scottsdale-located company, which will aggregate the data and make it available to the City and the community.

The City of Scottsdale Economic Development Strategic Plan was approved by City Council Feb. 15, 2015. It was developed with significant input from the business community via one-on-one meetings and focus groups, as well as extensive economic research. The Plan was designed as a five-year strategy, and is now two years into that plan. Since its adoption, a number of significant accomplishments have occurred.
