Peter Asher and Albert Lee

TONIGHT

Both multiple Grammy winners and music legends, Peter Asher and Albert Lee combine their talents for an acoustic evening of songs and stories.

“Their combined influence and contribution to music spans over a century and includes work with Eric Clapton, Dolly Parton and The Beatles.”

Pharoah Sanders Quartet

TOMORROW

NEA Jazz Master Ferrell “Pharoah” Sanders is a legendary jazz saxophonist who has shown a remarkable facility in performing in a variety of styles—from free to mainstream—displaying what has been called “hard-edged lyricism.”

“Pharoah Sanders is . . . from the urgent and spiritual elite of 1960s jazz, a tenor saxophonist with a sound like midnight riptides, the last living member of John Coltrane’s final band.”

—New York Times

Friday, July 28 | 7:00 p.m.

Tickets: $33.50–$48.50

Friday, July 28 | 9:00 p.m.

Amadou and Mariam

Since the late 1990s, Amadou and Mariam have produced Afro-blues music that mixes traditional Mali sound with rock guitars, Syrian violins, Cuban trumpets, Egyptian ney, Indian tablas, and Dogon percussion.

“Amadou & Mariam take the basic DNA of Western pop and soul and make it jump to irresistible African rhythms, electrified by Amadou’s bluesy guitar.”

Monday, July 31 | 7:00 p.m.
Tickets: $48.50–$63.50

JD Souther

John David “JD” Souther was one of the principal architects of the Southern California country-rock sound and is one of the most respected songwriters in American music.

“Souther did more than sketch out the emotional landscape for the introspective West Coast country-rock sound of the 1970s. He set the template.”

Mariano Gonzalez: Music of the Andes

An extraordinary Paraguayan harpist and composer, Mariano Gonzalez is a world-class performer. He has been featured in concerts at Carnegie Hall, the Kennedy Center, and the Library of Congress. He has toured extensively with Tony Orlando and has performed as guest soloist with major symphony orchestras.

Saturday, August 5 | 7:30 p.m.
Tickets: $30.50–$35.50

Mokoomba

The hottest new blend of raw Afro-fusion energy that is setting dance floors ablaze throughout the world.

“Rooted in the thumb-piano patterns of Zimbabwean tradition; and one that started with sweet, Congo-style vocal harmonies and grew into a crisp, irresistible soukous workout, complete with some synchronized dance steps.”
—New York Times
