Ottmar Liebert and Luna Negra

TONIGHT

Five-time Grammy nominee and platinum-selling guitarist Ottmar Liebert has become one of the most successful instrumental artists of the past couple of decades. He has performed with Carlos Santana, opened for Miles Davis, released a catalog of classic recordings, and thrilled audiences throughout the world.

Liebert and his band will be performing well-known favorites as well as songs from their newest album, Waiting n Swan, featuring music by Bob Marley.

Thursday, August 31 | 9:00 p.m.
Tickets: $43.50–$48.50

Radney Foster

TOMORROW

Throughout his thirty-year career, legendary singer-songwriter Radney Foster has continuously stretched the boundaries of Americana music.

“Foster’s songs are essentially country, but are charged with crackling Louisiana flavors and wiry, rootsy-rock a la The Band. Foster’s voice has a plainspoken quality akin to that of the late Levon Helm.”

Ana Popovic

The sizzling blues singer, songwriter, and guitarist has been nominated for five Blues Music Awards and was the sole female guitarist featured in the nationwide Experience Hendrix Tour, alongside the likes of Buddy Guy, Bootsy Collins, and Jonny Lang.

Carbon Leaf

With sixteen albums and over 2,300 live shows spanning a twenty-four-year career, Carbon Leaf continues to create the music and the spirit that resonate with its fans into 2017.

“Some call Carbon Leaf’s music Southern, others label it Celtic and still others say it leans toward bluegrass or some combination of formats. No matter what your take on the . . . band’s sound, almost everyone can agree that Carbon Leaf creates music that just isn’t heard anywhere else—and that’s what keeps fans clamoring for more music.”

Kaki King and Derek Gripper

The most innovative artists of their craft, Brooklyn-based “guitar god” Kaki King teams up with South African guitar virtuoso Derek Gripper.

“With her latest album, she’s found yet another new way to do what she always seems to do—to find great music in a guitar and play it like very, very few people can.”
