

Desert EDGE Alert

To give you a better sense for what Desert EDGE is all about, please take some time to view the following videos (we promise they're worth the popcorn!).

Please note that an earlier version was sent out that included an incorrect link to the Perspectives video.

This version has the updated link.

PaintItBlack TV did a wonderful job creating this brief overview "anthem" video featuring John Sather, Swaback Partners, and Tom Hennes, Thinc Design.

In addition, we'd like to thank The University of Advancing Technology administration, staff and students who worked on a video for us prior to our launch as Desert EDGE. Here you'll see several familiar faces talking about what a desert discovery center has meant and will mean to the community and world.

Councilmember Virginia Korte interviewed John Sather, Swaback Partners, and Wellington

“Duke” Reiter, Arizona State University, on her Scottsdale Video Network program. Learn more about the Desert EDGE architecture, as well as related plans for ASU’s Global Drylands Institute.
