

SAVE THE DATE — April 18, 2018 Nature Film Festival and Silent Auction

SAVE THE DATE

Please mark your calendars:

Wednesday, April 18

Desert Discovery Center Scottsdale's

2018 Nature Film Festival

Celebrate Earth Day early while enjoying two award-winning films, a picnic dinner and a beverage, plus a Silent Auction featuring dozens of coveted items, an African safari, local staycations, a Belize Get-Away, favorite restaurant dining, golf & spa packages and so MUCH MORE!

Festival is at Harkins Theatres Shea 14, 7354 E. Shea Blvd.

For more information, call 602-390-3452.

FEATURED FESTIVAL FILMS:

BBC Planet Earth II – Mountains

ASU KAET/PBS Animal Homes/Animal Cities

All proceeds from the Nature Film Festival will support DDCS and our continued planning of The Desert EDGE (a science-based, interpretive center focused on adaptation to the desert environment), an international ASU/GIOS/DDCS Global Drylands Center's Symposium on Pulse Dynamics in the Drylands, a STEM in the Desert teacher education workshop (generously funded to DDCS by Salt River Pima Maricopa Indian Community), our involvement in the Children's Learning Festival and much more.