

Summer Hits: Special Events Coming Your Way at Desert Foothills Library

Soundbite with KJZZ
Friday, July 12th 11:00-1:00 pm

This coming Friday, Desert Foothills Library welcomes KJZZ Soundbite truck to celebrate our Summer Reading: Universe of Stories. We will have live music provided by Roger Paull, KJZZ recording stories from patrons, volunteers, and all community members, and of course, some summer snacks to cool you off!

Join us to have a great time and explore the universe of stories right here in our community.

If you are interested in recording please email Programming Librarian Ashley Ware at aware@dfla.org or call the Library at 480-488-2286. Limited to 8 people.

Film Noir Series
with Gary Zaro
Fridays starting July 12th
3:00 pm

Gary Zaro is back at our Library! Film Noir describes a type of American cinema narrative that developed prior to World War II. This film series, hosted by Prof. Gary Zaro, will explore how this American style and genre of film, originating in filming styles developed by European filmmakers of the 1920's and 1930's and then emerged in the U.S. and later came to influence film-making around the world. Join us for great motion picture storytelling that will lure you, enthrall you, and make your summer sizzle!

Make your summer more beguiling sensational with the classic Films Noirs:

Ride the Pink Horse // Dir. Robert Montgomery 1947, U.S., 101 minutes on July 12, 2019

Diabolique // Dir. H.G. Clouzot 1955, France, 117 minutes on July 19, 2019

The Third Man // Dir. Carol Reed 1949, U.K., 93 minutes on July 26, 2019

Drunken Angel // Dir. Akira Kurosawa 1948, Japan, 102 minutes on August 2, 2019

Professor Gary Zaro leads two film series during the fall-winter-spring; Little Known Stories of WWII & 9 Films Around the World. No registration.

*Desert Foothills Gallery
Hot Art - Cool Show Reception
Saturday, July 20th
4:00-5:30 pm*

This exciting art show starts June 20th and features Sonoran Arts League artists who stay in the foothills for the summer! You will see a wide variety of excellent juried work and have a chance to buy art. You can meet and speak to the artists at the reception on July 20th, 4–5:30 at the Desert Foothills Library. Everyone welcome to join us in celebrating these “hot” artists!”

The Desert Foothills Library is the home of The Desert Foothills Art Gallery, a permanent gallery mainly featuring artists of the Sonoran Arts League. The wall mounted exhibition is changed four times a year so that the Library features a continuous rotation of work by local juried artists.

All art displayed in the Gallery is for sale. Twenty percent of the value of sales benefits the Library and five percent benefits the Sonoran Arts League. To purchase, please stop by the circulation desk any time during Library opening hours. No Registration.

Desert Foothills Library | 38443 N. Schoolhouse Road, Cave Creek, AZ 85331