Young Entrepreneurs!

Tuesdays, June 18, 25, July 9, 16, 23
7:30 - 9:00 pm
Ages 11 - 17

Local entrepreneur Lauren King is hosting a 5 week startup workshop to educate and inspire young, creative minds about the opportunities to do business in today's world. This is an engaging and participant-driven workshop where attendees will brainstorm business ideas and walk through the steps to actually launch a business. Lauren will use her own experience as a startup co-founder [OMEGA SEED SPICE] to illustrate the process from an idea, to launch, production and sale.

TOPICS INCLUDE:

- understanding a need and creating a solution
- demographics, understanding the customer
- brand development and the psychology of branding
- marketing concepts
- product testing, development and distribution
- competitive analysis

$25 for all 5 weeks!

ART BUS

Art, Wine and Conversation

Friday, July 12, 2019
12:00 - 4:00 pm

Come and join us on a fun trip to the Heard Museum, whose mission is to be the world's preeminent museum for the presentation, interpretation and advancement of American Indian art. You may choose to go on docent-led tours, or just wander around yourself. There is so much to see!

We will leave the Holland Community Center (34250 N 60th St., Scottsdale) promptly at 12:00 noon, and we will begin loading at 11:30 pm. We will return to the Holland Center at 4:00 pm.

On the way home, we will discuss our experience and enjoy some wine and cheese. So, get out of the heat, relax, and let us do the driving!

To register, or if you have any questions, please email us at: artbus@azfcf.org.
