Gliders – A World Wide New Weapon

Thur., Feb. 13, 2 - 4 pm

As a follow-up to his latest book "Colors of War – not Black and White but Nuances of Gray", Francois is in the process of completing his new book on the use of gliders in combat titled – "Gliders, A World Wide New Weapon".

Military gliders (a variation of the common glider) have been used by the military of various countries for carrying troops and heavy equipment into a war zone. They were used mainly during the WW II. These aircraft – with no engines – were towed into the air and most of the way to their target by military transport planes. Francois will cover American, British and German gliders and help us understand how effective this new weapon was in the world military strategy. His new book will be available sometime in 2020.

Culinary & Wellness Series – a 3 Series Course

Saturdays, Feb. 15 – Mar. 7, 10 am - Noon

Session 1 - Interactive Healthy Cooking Class on Feb. 15th

Eating healthier is all about the choices you make that work for you, your tastes, your weight, and health goals. It means something different to everyone. In her newly released "Make it Healthy" Cookbook, author Wendy Farrell helps you figure out what your own healthy eating style is and then provides a variety of recipe options that will work for YOU. This fun, interactive cooking class offers attendees the chance to participate, learn about nutrition, cooking skills and terms as Wendy cooks some of the healthy recipes from her cookbook in the Library's beautiful new demo kitchen. There will be food for all to enjoy. Join us to see how tasty eating healthy can be.

Session 2 - Stress and Emotion Management, Decompression and Relaxation Strategies on Feb. 22

Life is filled with triggers, stress, challenges and urgencies. It is important, for everyone of all ages, to know how to manage their emotions and reactions. In this workshop, Wendy will offer information and strategies to help you handle your triggers, stressors and emotions effectively and in healthy, productive ways.

Session 3 - Easy Fitness Strategies and Injury Prevention on Mar. 7th

Keeping your body healthy and injury free involves many components. Becoming mindful of how you move can help prevent injuries, large and small. Wendy will discuss a variety of options to keep fit, the concepts of ergonomics and the art of applying mindfulness to your actions and movements.

A Riding Life with Author Shelley Groom Trevor

Wed., Feb. 19, 2 - 2:30 pm

A Riding Life is about famous horses, a ranch, and a life spent riding, showing, and taking care of horses. From her early years to these later ones – through magical times and trying ones – horses have led Shelley Groom Trevor to an understanding about herself, them, and of life. Pursuant Shelly's passion for horses, she has written many magazine articles on horsemanship and paints horses on canvas. Her paintings are currently at Wilde Meyer Galleries in Scottsdale and Tucson.

RSVP online | Questions please call 480-488-2286. Books will be available for purchase.

The Creation of My Fair Lady

Wed., Feb. 26, 2 - 3:30 pm

We'll celebrate this universally beloved show, often called the greatest musical of all time, by following its long journey from its beginnings as Shaw's 1912 play Pygmalion, and then as a popular 1938 film. Then we'll learn how Lerner and Loewe managed to fashion the material into a musical theatre triumph. Charles Troy's multimedia presentations tell the stories behind the greatest Broadway musicals of the 20th century in seamless visual programs with his own original graphics, and a scripted narrative that weaves the events into cohesive, dramatic tales.

RSVP online or
