About the Song

“Often called the most beloved and popular of college fraternity songs, "The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" was written in 1911[1] by Byron D. Stokes (Albion, Class of 1913) and F. Dudleigh Vernor (Albion, Class of 1914). Stokes had written the words while in class one June day that year, and presented them that afternoon to Vernor, who was practicing the piano in a local house, and composed the music at that time. The song has since become a favorite among ballroom orchestras and was used in two movie musicals of the same name, in 1933 and 1946.” Wikipedia

Lyrics

The girl of my dreams is the sweetest girl

Of all the girls I know

Each sweet co-ed like a rainbow trail

Fades in the afterglow

The blue of her eye and the gold of her hair

Are a blend of the western sky

And the moonlight beams on the girl of my dreams

She's the sweetheart of Sigma Chi

Oh the blue of her eye and the gold of her hair

Are a blend of the western sky

She's the sweetheart of Sigma Chi
