Free virtual screening of the French film THE LAW

Streaming Thursday, July 14 through Sunday, July 17

This July, the Greater Phoenix Jewish Film Festival is presenting a free film to the community that is both timely and enthralling.

THE LAW is a gripping and elegant biopic tracing Health Minister Simone Veil's courageous fight in the National Assembly in 1974 to legalize abortion in France. Veil – an Auschwitz survivor – was a groundbreaking French health minister and also one of the few women in Jacques Chirac's government. Facing fierce resistance and increasing personal attacks from the Catholic Church and the opposing party, Veil refuses to capitulate and, over three days, defends the controversial law on her own in her heroic battle on behalf of her nation's women.

Shot with the style of a classic French noir, THE LAW is an impressive, well-paced exploration of the continued need for survival and resilience in the shadows of anti-Semitism and sexism, cast over post-war French society.

Beginning July 1, go to the Festival's website at www.gpjff.org and follow the instructions to reserve your ticket to the free online screening. A single viewing is available per household from Thursday, July 14 through Sunday, July 17.

When: Thursday, July 14 through Sunday, July 17
